The Court's Individual Civil Rule 6.A provides that a party seeking to file a motion must generally file a pre-motion letter "notifying the Court of its anticipated motion, summarizing the basis for the anticipated motion, and proposing a briefing schedule." Individual Rule 6.A affords an exception for motions "previously authorized by the Court," and Mr. Williams's March 8, 2025 Letter, Dkt. 404, indicates that "Judge Lehrburger has previously granted [Williams] leave to seek sanctions under Fed. R. Civ. P. 11."

Judge Lehrburger did not grant Williams leave to file a motion for sanctions under Rule 11. Judge Lehrburger's May 24, 2024 Order, Dkt. 290, stated that a determination of whether sanctions under Rule 11 and 18 U.S.C. § 1927 were appropriate was "premature and [any such motion] shall not be filed unless and until the case is disposed of in Defendant Williams' favor either on summary judgment, trial, or other disposition. Accordingly, the requests for leave are DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE to renew at the appropriate time. Any Rule 11 sanctions motion must be preceded by the notice procedure required by that Rule. Defendant Williams can serve the requisite Rule 11 notice at any time; he need not await disposition of the case to serve the notice." Dkt. 290.

As clearly set forth in the above order, Judge Lehrburger denied leave to file either a motion for sanctions under Rule 11 or Section 1927 without prejudice to renewal at the appropriate time. Williams has therefore not been granted leave of Court to move under Rule 11, and, as such, must comply with both the notice requirements of Rule 11(b) and the Court's typical procedure for motions practice set forth in Individual Civil Rule 6.A.

The instant motion is therefore denied without prejudice for failing to comply with the Court's Individual Rules. Mr. Williams will be afforded an opportunity to request leave of Court for any anticipated sanctions motions at the March 28, 2025 in-person conference in this matter, provided Rule 11's notice requirement has been satisfied.

The Clerk of Court is respectfully directed to close Docket Number 406.

SO ORDERED.
